

Evan Fields

Graphic Designer

I am a self-motivated, creative Graphic Designer who enjoys taking a project from conception to completion. Thriving in a fast-paced work environment some of my best work has come from projects that require quick turn-arounds, team collaboration and adaptability. I enjoy working in a culture where teaching and learning is encouraged.

EXPERIENCE

Aug. 2015 – Present
Graphic Designer • University of California, Riverside (UCR)
University Communications (UCOMM)

Riverside, CA

UCOMM helps UCR with global positioning among all higher education institutions by providing internal and external communications. My focus is on creative development by collaborating with writers and fellow designers to create campaign systems, event graphics and web design/maintenance while upholding the brand and voice of UCR.

Feb. 2003 – Aug. 2014
Senior Graphic Designer • Living Spaces Furniture

La Mirada, CA

Providing print advertisement environmental signs and displays, conceptual engineering and photography services to one of the largest furniture chains in Southern California.

Apr. 2001 – Feb. 2003
Senior Graphic Designer • Uber Advertising & Public Relations

Upland, CA

A boutique advertising agency supporting retail, real estate, restaurants, city governments, financial institutions and colleges with marketing strategies. I created layouts for a diverse client base that aligned with planned marketing strategies.
